JONES VARGAS EMPLOYMENT LAW ATTORNEYS TO EDUCATE NEVADA BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS

RENO, Nev. (March 10, 2008) – Ann Morgan and Molly Malone Rezac of Jones Vargas soon will educate businesspeople across Nevada on the intricacies of employment law as it relates to employee discharge and documentation. The two attorneys will lead sessions on effective workplace investigations and termination script during a continuing education seminar, entitled “Employee Discharge and Documentation in Nevada,” taking place at the Peppermill Hotel Casino from 8:30 a.m.- 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 26.

The seminar is intended for human resources professionals, business and office managers, directors, vice presidents, CFOs, controllers, accountants and attorneys. Professionals will receive: updates on trends in employment litigation, master documentation regarding hiring, tips on personnel files, strategies for effective workplace investigation and valuable techniques for the termination script.

“Continuing education is an important part of any professional’s career, with particular regard to human resources and other types of business managers, as they frequently deal in areas that require great tact and exactitude,” noted Morgan. “Documenting conduct and performance issues is often the most difficult part of these professionals’ jobs as it always seems to get placed on the back burner – until that documentation is needed – and then it becomes a critical part of the business equation. By participating in this seminar we hope to teach businesspeople how to avoid issues that could arise from improper documentation of workplace practices, thereby minimizing potentially litigious circumstances.”
