JONES VARGAS DONATES 365 POUNDS OF FOOD TO FOOD BANK OF NORTHERN NEVADA

RENO, Nev. (Oct. 18, 2007) – As part of a challenge issued to local businesses by the Reno-Tahoe Young Professionals Network (RTYPN), the Reno office of Jones Vargas recently collected 365 pounds of food for the Northern Nevada Food Bank. Its winning collection beat the nearest competitor by more than 220 pounds, and all other amounts combined did not equal Jones Vargas' contribution to the Food Bank. The contest ran from Aug. 27 to Sept. 24.

John Sande IV, an associate at Jones Vargas Reno, is a founding member of the RTYPN and helped in issuing the challenge to local businesses.

"Our goal in partnering with the Food Bank was to get local businesses more involved in collecting food in an effort to increase donations throughout the community," said Sande. "It's just an added bonus for me that Jones Vargas pulled together to make the greatest contribution to the organization. I'm really proud of our teamwork and effort to help the Food Bank."
